What DRx's Scientist says:

“Science meets Urban Lifestyle. The NEW Rejuvenator is an innovative skin product that is uniquely designed to keep abreast of the fast-paced modern urban life style, whereby chronological aging is not the only focal point to restore youth, but extrinsically-induced, such as UV radiation and chemical pollutants, which commonly termed ‘premature aging’ are also taken into consideration when revamping the modern Rejuvenator.

It has also been improved to be more consumer-centric now and custom-made for city dwellers. It's non-oily, has a lighter feel and yet excellent moisturising effect which suits tropical weather very well.”

Who is it for?

Women and men whose mature skin lacks elasticity and firmness.
